Old Business.

New Business: Future meeting dates and clubs willing to hold the meetings was discussed and all dates were determined with host clubs, except where the Annual Recognition dinner will be held. President will be contacting clubs to determine this.

Updated financial Analysis was presented by the Treasurer. As indicated by the analysis we are in excellent financial condition. Discussion followed on the amount of revenue generated by the recognition dinner/banquet. What can be done to improve the amount of revenue generated by this event. As it is our only fund raiser. Treasurer indicated that except for 2023 we had requested financial support for either our scholarship awards or our banquet from Seneca Meadows landfill and they have always done so.

Discussion was held on how; can we recognize the past financial support we have received from Seneca Meadows landfill. Possibly something on our WEB page.

A Recognition dinner/Banquet committee was formed with Gary Brewer as the Chairman and Bara Wells, Aaron Bontwell, Norm Ridley, Fred Berry and Bill Ryan as members on the committee. They are tasked with planning the next recognition dinner/banquet. Idea's to be presented at the February meeting.

S-3994 a bill dated 2017 has had no movement. It proposes to change posted/no trespass to a slash of purple paint with less signage. President will investigate this.

Issue with enforcement of Posted No hunting by the DEC officer was brought up. President will contact the ECO and request he attend a meeting to discuss What is needed to properly POST land.

Motion to adjourn.

Meeting adjourned 8:35 pm.

Next meeting: Tuesday, February 20th Kuneytown Sportsmen's Club 3735 Hoster Rd, Seneca Falls. Food at 6:30 pm meeting at 7 PM.
