Committee Reports

Banquet committee Fred advised that posters and raffle tickets for gun shows to be raffled; will discuss dinner tickets with Barb.

Venue: Waterloo Sportsmen's Club on May 23rd --- last year sold 73 dinner tickets; so assume 75 this year

Old Business

Ron: inquired about "SAFE-ACT-2" – Dieter advised that we lost 8 GOP seats to DEMs who now control the State Senate; advised that micro-stamping is likely to end pistol sales in NY; there are various options on the table for the DEM controlled senate.

Ed Mitchell: inquired about the plaque for the SWD reception center. Ron Pesta is going to check into that

New Business

- William Dadson: Turkey Federation has scholarships available (according to Norm); please contact Norm Ridley directly for details (315) 651-9096.

- Ron P. advised SCOPE meeting 11/27 upstairs @ Ciccino's – Tom King, president of NY Rifle & Pistol Assoc. is speaker (also serves on BOD for NRA)
- William: wants the three school-trap programs in the County to attend the SCOPE event to find out how they want to receive the funds for the Trap teams;
- Bill R: MacDougall sponsored one-youth; FLConservation sponsored 2; Federation reimburses up to $1,000 for youth to go to DEC camp; did not payout the college scholarship – consequently would like to be able to pay out $1,050
 - Ron provided 1st; and Barb seconded – MOTION PASSED
- Dieter: 2019-20: Waterfowl season limit 2 mallards daily – Atlantic Flyway (NYS portion) —> Federal Judge allowed suit against Cuomo to advance
- NYSenate: GOP in minority starting January – one-party rule – led by Andrea Stewart-Cousins; Flanagan will be minority leader —> some potential issues: Drivers License for undocumented NYers; tax increases; state takeover of healthcare, early-voting and red-flag bill; link from SCOPE on buffalo newspaper article
- In 2013 SAFE act passage: Erie County/ city of Buffalo under 265.37 on-going controversy; 23 outstanding cases in Erie County; DA has decided not to prosecute the cases, all being dismissed
- Reporter spoke to NYSP spokesmen; State Police are now going to enforce that section of PL —> still unsure of whether this is going to be enforced
- Brief discussion on offense for 7-round exceed violation
- Bill Ryan: discussed new county judge, indicates that Barry plans to adhere to written guidelines as they exist; Sportmen's permits likely to be non-existent; Bill advised that current licensees need to fill out pistol permit amendment
- Next meeting 12/18 @ Buckskin Bowmen

Motion to adjourn at 7:29 PM.
